News and Information

Issue 4-2009

Happy Spring everyone!!

As most of you know, my work computer crashed and I have been diligently getting everything back to normal. Thank you to all who have emailed me so I have your address in my new computers. If any of you still have all the emails you have sent and I have sent you, if you would like, you can reply to those if there is any pertinent information that might be useful for your reception. If not, don't worry about it.

Some of you newer couples, I still have a few contracts that I need to get your copies to you. I will get them out within the next week or so. Just got the new desk top and getting everything hooked back up to it.

Some of you took advantage of the discount I offered by paying your balance in full. If you did not print off a receipt, let me know and I can get a copy of it off of my credit card merchant site. I am no longer offering that discount.

I received a phone call a couple weeks ago from a Bride, (she didn't hire me to DJ) and they were putting their own slide show together. They were having a very difficult time getting it the way they wanted so they hired us (my wife really, I just help with the music part) to do it for her. It took Amy a few hours of 3 days to get it done and we met the bride and played it for her and she loved it. She said it was so much better than what they were trying to do and they were working on it for months. If any of you are planning on doing a slide show and are interested in finding out more about this, go to my site, www.MultipleChcoiceDJ.com and click on the photo montage link in the menu. She had under 100 photos, 3 songs and it was only $75. We are not picky and we let you make as many copies of it you want to. So you can hand them out to all of your family if you want.

Another phone call I received just a few days ago was from a frantic Bride getting married on April 4th. She could not get a hold of her DJ she hired. For over a month, he was not answering calls, emails or returning messages. I would have loved to help her out but I am already booked that day. As with my newsletters and answering the phone and returning emails, you will not have to worry about me not being there for you. Make sure you keep in some sort of contact with all of your vendors be it photographer, videographer, decorator, cake person or venue. Communication is key to make things run smoothly come your big day.

I have rambled on quite a bit this month so I will save some for May. Welcome to spring and to the start of wedding season.

Until next month, take care, Karl

Save the date magnets

A new and interesting way to announce your engagement is to send out save the date magnets. There are many different styles and designs to choose from. You can also find do it yourself kits at wedding craft stores. Go online and search for different places to design and order yours!!

As you slide down the banister of married life, may the splinters always point in the right direction!!

A different kind of wedding cake!

At a wedding I was at one time, they had their cake made entirely of cupcakes. They got tiers from the craft store and had a family member make the cake. They frosted the cupcakes and then put them together. After it was together, they sprinkled the cupcakes with sprinkles that were the color of their wedding. They then used fake flowers to decorate the table around the cake. Saved a lot of money, no one needed to cut the cake and sometimes the venue charges for this. Many Ideas can be found online for cupcake cakes.

A successful marriage requires falling in love many times, always with the same person.

As a new bride, Aunt Edna moved into the small home on her husband's ranch. She put a shoe box on a shelf in her closet and asked her husband NEVER to touch it.

For fifty years Uncle Jack left the box alone until Aunt Edna was old and dying. One day when he was putting their affairs in order, he found the box again and thought it might hold something important. Opening it, he found two doilies and $82,500 in cash.

He took the box to her and asked about the contents.

"My mother gave me that box the day we married," she explained. "She told me to make a doily to help ease my frustrations every time I got mad at you."

Uncle Jack was very touched that in 50 years she'd only been mad at him twice.

"What's the $82,500 for?" he asked.

"Oh, that's the money I made selling the rest of the doilies."
